

Audrius DULSKAS
(National Cancer Center, Lithuania)

Curriculum Vitae

Education and Training

1990-2002	Vilnius Simonas Stanevicius Secondary School
2002-2008	Vilnius University Faculty of Medicine
2008-2014	Clinics of Vilnius University, Internship & General Surgery Residency
2016	PhD Thesis “Changes in Urogenital and Anorectal Function in Patients Undergoing Radical Surgery for Rectal Cancer”
2016	Yonsei University, Severance Hospital, Yonsei Cancer Center; Seoul, S.Korea. Colorectal and Upper GI Surgery Fellowship (Prof. N.K. Kim and Prof. S. Noh)
2017	Laparoscopic Colorectal Surgery Advanced Course, IRCAD Training Center, Strasbourg, France
2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Minimal Invasive Surgery in Colorectal Cancer, Tokyo, Japan -Colorectal Diseases Treatment, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center New York, USA (Prof Julio Garcia-Aguilar and Prof Martin Weisser) / Mayo Clinics, Rochester, Minnesota USA (Dr. Scott Kelley and Dr. David Larson) -Minimal Invasive Surgery in Colorectal Cancer, Seoul, S.Korea -TaTME COURSE, Amsterdam, Netherlands
2019	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Colorectal Diseases Treatment, Cleveland Clinics, Cleveland, US (Prof Herman Kessler) -General Surgical Department, DonauSpital, Vienna, Austria (Prof. Stepahn Kriwanek)
2020	Robotic Training, Bologna, Italy
2021	Late Sequel Clinic, Aarhus University Hospital (PROF. Peter Christensen, PROF Soren Laurberg)
2022	Visceral Surgery, Erlangen, Germany (Prof. Robert Grutzmann)
Present	Head of the Department, Surgical Oncology Department, National Cancer Center, Branch of Vilnius University Hospital, Santaros Clinics